INAUGURATION DAY.

MONDAY was a great day in our Capitol, when William McKinley, of Ohio, was ushered in for a second time as President of the United States.

The committee on arrangements spared neither labor nor money in preparing for this occasion. Pennsylvania Avenue, along which the parade took place, was beautifully decorated with bunting and flags.
The military was the most striking feature of the parade, and attracted unbounded admiration. The Regulars, Jack Tars, West Point and Annapolis Cadets; the rough riders on their broncos, the Porto Rico regiment, the Richmond Grays, in Confederate gray, the college students from the principal Universities and the National guards from the several States, made a sight more beautiful and impressive than we can imagine, and the massive crowd of over forty thousand people, who had gathered to witness the inauguration, gave one ovation after another as this magnificent array passed. Admiral Dewey, Gen. Miles, Gen. Wheeler and many other prominent officers, besides several Governors riding with their staff, composed a striking feature of the parade.

A full appreciation and enjoyment of the occasion, was prevented to a certain extent by the rain.
During the time the President was delivering his speech, the rain fell hardest, only the President being protected by the pavilion, in which he stood, when he took the oath and delivered his inaugural address; the Senators, Representatives, diplomatic corps and many handsomely dressed women stood on the platform, some not being even protected by an umbrella.

The expression, which the President carried on his face and the earnestness with which he spoke, when in reply to that solemn oath, he said, he would protect, defend and care for the best interest of the American people, he evidently realized how sacred was his vow.
The inaugural address is especially conspicuous for its brevity. The President says that: "The National verdict of 1896 has for the most part been executed and its permanence can only be assured by sound business methods and strict economy in National Administration and legislation;" that the "promise made the Cubans must be made good;" and that "while there has not as yet, been any form of government chosen for the Philippines, the troops that are there are only for the purpose of keeping down insurrections and that the progress made towards the pacification is greater than represented."

The oath, of office, was administered to Vice-President-elect Roosevelt, by Senator Frye, of Maine, speaker pro tem of the Senate, after which the vice made a few remarks in which, he said, "it was a source of great pleasure and gratification, to him to be the President of the Senate of the United States."

The little government, of Venezuela, is entirely too small and weak to encourage its newspapers to keep up their hostile attacks on Americans. President McKinley and Minister Loomis are special objects of ridicule, and while we are compelled to say that they have selected very appropriate subjects for that kind of work, we can not say, that we indorse it.

SENATOR WILLIAM LINDSAY leaves Washington today, for New York, where he will locate for the practice of law. With his massive intellect, his accurate knowledge of law and his wonderful power of endurance, it will only be a short time until he will be at the top of that great profession in his new field of labor.

A very wealthy man living near Washington, Ind., has received a letter from an unknown person warning him that unless a large amount of money is forthcoming he and his family will be killed.

HON. JOSEPH C. S. BLACKBURN is again in the U. S. Senate and within twelve month mors our Ex-Gov. James B. McCreary will be

VICE PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT was warmly applauded Wednesday when he took his seat to call the Senate to order.

SENATOR CARTER, of Montana, talked to death the River and Harbor bill, as his farewell speech.

HANNA AND MCKINLEY, rode in the same carriage in the Inaugural parade.

farm for $2,800, and will leave for Montana in the near future. He

A meeting of the stockholders of the old Somerset Banking Co., will be held Saturday March 9th, at G. W. Isaacs, at this place. We would be glad if every member could be present, as there is some important business to be attended to. Suit has been filed in the Pulaski Circuit Court, by the stockholders in the Somerset National Banking Co., against the officers of the old institution. It attempts to set aside the transfer of the assets, and other transfers which it claims was fraudulent. This, we have always claimed was not right. We have not been able to see where the National Bank had any right to take the matter under control anyway.

F. L. Warren, of Rockcastle, suggested to us that, if on extra session of Congress is call, that we urge the editor of the "Possum Holler". News, to introduce a bill granting all the volunteers, who went to Frankfort during the days of Taylor, a pension. Now it seems to me there has been but one granted and it is a life time job.
Bros. Taylor and Finley had better be good little children over in Hoosier. I am told there are some reckless men over there of late, who aint afraid to use ropes and matches. Now we are powerfully down on sich, and think they ought to come home, where they will be safe. Those people over there dont know the war is over Now Ed, we hope you will forgive us, our portion is small, but when the new R. R. comes and Skunk town takes on a boom, you will hear more of us. So let Buck Varnon talk his points J. H. B.

Help... Nature

Babies and children need proper food, rarely ever medicine. If they do not thrive on their food something is wrong. They need a little help to get their digestive machinery working properly.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

will generally correct this difficulty.

If you will put from one-fourth to half a teaspoonful in baby's bottle three or four times a day you will soon see a marked improvement. For larger children, from half to a teaspoonful, according to age, dissolved in their milk, if you so desire, will very soon show its great nourishing power. If the mother's milk does not nourish the baby, she needs the emulsion. It will show an effect at once both upon mother and child.

The census shows some queer things about Texas. For instance,

Young Women

The entry into womanhood is a critical time for a girl. Little menstrual disorders started at that time soon grow into fatal complications. That female troubles are filling graveyards proves this. Wine of Cardui establishes a painless and natural menstrual flow. When once this important function is started right, a healthy life will usually follow. Many women, young and old, owe their lives to Wine of Cardui. There is nothing like it to give women freedom from pain and to fit young women for every duty of life.
$1.00 bottles at druggists.

Miss Della M. Strayer, Tully, Kan. "I have suffered untold pain at menstrual periods for a long time, was nervous, had no appetite, and lost interest in everything.
In fact was miserable. I have taken four bottles of Wine of Cardui, with Theford's Black-Draught, when needed, and to-day I am entirely cured. I cannot express the thanks I feel for what you have done for me."

Just read the label on your paper and you can very readily see how you stand. Prompt attention of all delinquent subscribers in this matter will be greatly appreciated, because the money spent for postage and time spent in writing a personal letter to each one, is a big thing, and we hope that all, to whom this is applicable will take cognizance of the importance of this notice.

McClure, of this place, were married at the residence of Mr. A. Severance at Stanford yesterday, by the Rev. Hagan. The wedding took place at 1 P. M. and at 2:30, they left for Paint Lick, where they will make their future home. Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Davis accompanied them to Stanford and witnessed the marriage. Mr. Champ is to be congratulated for his splendid victory in winning such a noble woman for a life companion. Miss Bessie was very popular with both the young and old people of society, possessing, as she did, a mild manner and even temperament, with many superb qualities of both heart and brain. The Signal extends its heartiest congratulations and its sincerest wishes are, that as they travel down the rugged path way of life, that the hours of sorrow and misfortune, which must necessarily come in some form or other, will be but momentary, compared with their hours of joy peace and prosperity.

There is nothing so bad for a cough as coughing. It tears the tender membrane of the throat and lungs, and the wounds thus made attract the germs of consumption. Stop your cough by using the family remedy that has been curing coughs and colds of every kind for over sixty years. You can't afford to be without it.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

loosens the grasp of your cough. The congestion of the throat and lungs is removed; all inflammation is subdued; and the cough drops away.

Three sizes: the one dollar size is the cheapest to keep on hand; the 50c. size for coughs you have had for some time; the 25c. size for an ordinary cold.

"For 15 years I had a very bad cough. The doctors and everybody else thought I had a true case of consumption. Then I tried Ayer's Cherry Pectoral and it only took a bottle and a half to cure me."

P. MARION MILLER, Camden, N. Y.

Write the Doctor. If you have any complaint whatever and desire the best medical advice, write the Doctor freely. Address: DR. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Mass.

JOHN PURCELL.

Feb. 22-31.

Jonas R. Bush, auct., reports the sale of Mrs. Nancy N. Tuttle on the 26th, as well attended and the following prices realized: 1 milch cow $34.50; 1 cow, $31.75; 3 two-year-old heifers, $3.75 per hundred; 2 heifer calves, $15.50 each; 9 sheep, $4.10 per head; 1 young horse, $35; 1 four-year old mare, $73; 1 saddle horse, $48; 1 old mare, $9.50; 1 two-year-old mule, $77; 1 yearling mule, $61; 1 old mule, $35; 11 head hogs, $5.20 per hundred; hay $10 per ton.—Winchester Democrat.

A large crowd attended Frank Thompson's sale Tuesday, and excellent prices were realized. Milch cows brought $38 to $50; one yearling steer, $42.50; one bull, $40; calves, $16 to $23; horses, $20 to $100; one mule, $65; one brood sow, $23; 3 gilts, $16 to $19.25; one sow and five pigs, $16.75; 48 ewes, $5.05 per head; corn in crib, $2.25 to $2.29 per barrel; hay, $18 to $27 per stack; meat—shoulders, 8 1/2c; sides, 10 1/2c., and hams, 13 1/2c.; sorghum molasses, 39c. per gallon.—Mt. Sterling Gazette.

Nothing is truer than, life is made up of small things. The government reports shows that the value of the egg crop of Kentucky is greater than that of our immense tobacco crop, and that the value of eggs, chickens, geese, etc., exceeds the value of all the agricultural products in the State. If that be true, and we have no reason to doubt it in the least, then the good house-wives of Kentucky, in a very humble and quiet way, without making any fuss about it, are making more money and bringing more money into the State by way of their poultry yards than all the farmers of the State with their extensive farming, costly machinery, etc.—Brooksville Review.

J. A. Wood, of Garrard, sold 300 sheep at 3 to 3 1/2c and bought 11 cattle at $25 and a bunch of yearlings at $20.....Thomas Metcalf bought of Samuel Dudderar 25 shoats at 4 1/2c.....Lutes & Co. bought of James Coulter 50 ewes at $4.....J. B. Foster bought of Willis Logan a bunch of 100-pound shoats at 4 1/2c.—Interior Journal.

W. C. Carpenter says he has bought over 200 hogs for March and April delivery at prices ranging from 4.85 to $5. He seems to be very confident of the continued advancement in the prices of hogs.—Harrodsburg Democrat.

W. A. Cox bought the Roberts tract of the Old Cook farm, comprising 16 acres.

STRIKES A RICH FIND.

"I was troubled for several years with chronic indigestion and nervous debility," writes F. J. Greep, of Lancaster, N. H. "No remedy helped me until I began using Electric Bitters, which did me more good than all the medicines I ever used. They have also kept my wife in excellent health for years. She says Electric Bitters are just splendid for female troubles; that they are a grand tonic and invigorator for weak, run down women. No other medicine can take its place in our family." Try them. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by all Druggists.

AN HONEST MEDICINE FOR LA GRIPPE.

George W. Waitt, of South Gardiner, Me., says: "I have had the worst cough, cold, chills and grip and have taken lots of trash of no account but profit to the vendor. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the only thing that has done any good whatever. I have used one bottle of it and the chills, cold and grip have all left me. I congratulate the manufacturers of an honest medicine." For sale by Theo Wesley Druggist.

Mrs. C. E. VanDeusen, of Kilbourn, Wis., was afflicted with stomach trouble and constipation for a long time. She says, "I have tried many preparations but none have done me the good that Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets have." These Tablets are for sale at Theo Wesley's drug store. Price, 25 cents. Samples free.

TWICE PROVEN.

From the Vindicator, Rutherfordton, N. C. The editor of the Vindicator has had occasion to test the efficacy of Chamberlain's Pain Balm twice with the most remarkable results in each case. First, with rheumatism in the shoulder from which he suffered excruciating pain for ten days, which was relieved with two applications of Pain Balm, rubbing the parts afflicted and realizing instant benefit and entire relief in a very short time. Second, in rheumatism in thigh joint, almost prostrating him with severe pain, which was relieved by two applications, rubbing with the liniment on retiring at night, and getting up free from pain. For sale by Theo Wesley Druggist.

NIGHT WAS HER TERROR.

"I would cough nearly all night long," writes Mrs. Chas. Applegate, of Alexandria, Ind., "and could hardly get any sleep. I had consumption so bad that if I walked a block I would cough frightfully and spit blood, but, when all other medicines failed, three $1.00 bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery wholly cured me and I gained 58 pounds." It's absolutely guaranteed to cure Coughs, Colds, La Grippe, Bronchitis and all Throat and Lung Troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at all Druggists drug store.

A GOOD COUGH MEDICINE FOR CHILDREN.

"I have no hesitancy in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says F. P. Moran, a well-known and popular baker, of Petersburg, Va. "We have given it to our children when troubled with bad coughs, also whooping cough, and it has always given perfect satisfaction. It was recommended to me by a druggist as the best cough medicine for children as it contained no opium or other harmful drug." Sold by Theo Wesley Druggist.

Headache often results from a disordered condition of the stomach and constipation of the bowels. A dose or two of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets will correct these disorders and cure the headache. Sold by Theo Wesley Druggist.
